

West Valley High School – Recommendation Letter Brag Sheet

Please give your recommender at least 15-30 days to write a quality letter of recommendation!

This “brag sheet” is designed to help your recommender write an effective letter for your college admissions and scholarship applications. These questions are all optional, but the more material you give your recommender, the better your letter will highlight you as a unique individual. Type or neatly write your answers to the following questions.
